PUBLICITY IN SMALL PACKAGES FOR USE IN THE HOME

would be of less value to the house-wife than those pages of her daily newspaper which contains the want advertisements.

Through the want ad columns the house-wife not only secures her domestic help_seamstress, laundress, nurse, cook; *but she trades her old plane for a nearly-new dining-room set; her old sealskin coat for a costly side-board; her "duplicate" silver-ware for cut-glass; and "hubby's" old overcoat for a load of kindling wood.

In the course of time she finds a better place to live at a lower rent; finds a cash buyer for that surburban lot which uncle John willed to her a few years ago; discovers a better music teacher for Ethel; and rents the two extra rooms in the house for enough to pay the wages of her household help.

She finds that Publicity, harnessed for use in the home, is a thoroughly domesticated force; and that every penny invested in it returns an amazing per cent. of profit. Tee Dee Wants excel all other small packages of Publicity.
